RICHMOND TONIGHT

The army of admirers of dainty Marguerite Clark, the Paramount star who is widely known as the "sweetest girl in motion pictures," have a genuine treat in store for them when her latest photoplay, "Out of a Clear Sky" will be persented at the Richmond tonight.

This is a tremendously interesting picture story which deals with a tiny Belgian Countess who, to escape a distasteful marriage with a dissolute German Prince, flees to this country and finds refuge in the mountains of Tennessee. Here also, she finds happiness in the love of a stalwart American, but their honeymoon does not rise until they have had adventures, as dramatic as they are interesting.

Miss Clark is exceptionally well supported, her leading man being Thomas Meighan, one of the best known of screen players.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo addressed a large gathering last night of the members of Liberty Loan organizations and workers of the Second Federal Reserve District, at Carnegie Hall, New York. Secretary McAdoo announced that the amount of the fourth bond issue would be $6,000,000,000, bearing an interest of 4 1-4 per cent. He said that besides living in a fool's paradise, those who do not save their money by investing in liberty bonds will be doing a grievous injury to their country.

WEDDING AT ST. PAUL'S

Miss Anna S. Bartels Bride of Mr. Lewis Gordon B. Porter—Reception Follows Ceremony.

St. Paul's P. E. Church at noon today was the scene of a pretty wedding ceremony when Miss Anna Schneider Bartels, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Bartels, became the bride of Mr. Lewis Gordon Porter, formerly of Richmond, but more recently of this city. The ceermony was performed by Rev. Dr. P. P. Phillips, rector, assisted by Rev. Matthew B. Porter, the last named father of the bridegroom. A large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties attended.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and was accompanied to the chancel by her grandfather Mr. Justus Schneider.

She was unattended and was gowned in blue georgette crepe trimmed in steel beads with hat to match and her flowers were a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses. Mr. Carroll Ashby was best man.

The wedding ceremony was followed by an informal reception at the residence of the bride's mother, 424 North Washington street. It was attended by only the immediate relatives and a few close friends of the couple. Afterward Mr. and Mrs. Porter left for a northern bridal trip. They will reside here. The bridegroom is assistant superintendent at the plant of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company.

MGR. IRELAND DIES

Distinguished Prelate Was Archbishop of St. Paul For Thirty Years. Ordained to Priesthood at Age of Twenty-three.

St. Paul, Sept. 25.—John Ireland, archbishop of the St. Paul diocese of the Roman Catholic Church for thirty years, died at 3:55 this morning at the age of eighty.

The Right Rev. John Ireland was born in Burnchurch, County Kilkenny, Ireland, on September 11, 1838. When he was but a babe in arms his parents removed to St. Paul, and his early education was received in the Cathedral school of that city. He was sent to France in 1853, and in September of that year, when he was but fifteen, he enterd the Petit Seminaire of Meximeux, finishing the eight-year course there in four years. He studied theology at the Grand Seminaire at Hyeres, returning to St. Paul in 1861, and being ordained a priest when he was little more than twenty-three years of age.

Upon the formation of the Fifth Minnesota Regiment, young Ireland was made its chaplain, and served two years in the civil war. Returning from the field, he was appointed rector of Cathedral parish, the central and largest parish in St. Paul, and continued in that position until he was named as coadjutor bishop.

In 1870 he went to Rome as the accredited representative of Bishop Grace at the Vatican council. In February, 1875, he was chosen to succeed Bishop O'Gorman in the vicariate of Nebraska, but through the efforts of Bishop Grace the appointment was canceled, and he was then nominated coadjutor bishop of St. Paul and was consecrated on December 21, 1875. In 1888 he was elevated to the head of the archdiocese of St. Paul.

Archbishop Ireland was a man of great personal magnetism, a conversationalist of unvarying interest and of remarkable versatility. In church matters he was a liberal.

CHECK EPIDEMIC.

New Cases Reported Only From Six Army Camps.

There were no new cases of Spanish influenza reported yesterday to the health department of the District of Columbia. The seven cases that have been reported are all very mild.

Camp Humphreys reported fifty-six new cases and Camp Meade eighty-nine.

The Public Health Service last night announced that 2,943 new cases in the United States had been reported during the past twenty-four hours. Pneumonia has developed in 390 cases during the same period. The number of deaths during the twenty-four hours was announced as 112, chiefly from pneumonia.

These figures are identical with those given out by the Surgeon General for the army.

STILL HOLD RUBIN

Despite Writ From Virginia District Officials Have Self Confessed Slayer of Eva Roy in Custody—Believe He is Seeking Notoriety.

Ben Rubin, who says he killed Eva Roy, remains in the custody of District authorities although extradition papers from the governor of Virginia are in the hands of District Attorney Lasky.

Sheriff Allison, of Fairfax county, arrived in Washington from Richmond Tuesday with the papers. But the District authorities, it appears, will not, accede t othe request from the governor of Virginia.

The District Officials, although unable to make Rubin "break down" during many examinations, feel he is not guilty of the murder of Eva Roy, but only seeking notoriety. They have so many crimes marked up against Rubin they are anxious to have him stand trial in Washington before he is taken back into Virginia for the crime they are certain he did not commit.

Commonwealth Attorney C. Vernon Ford is inclined to believe the story told by Rubin that he is the murderer of little Eva Roy on August 6 while she was in the woods near Burke Station looking after her father's cows.

District detectives are borne out in their contention that the man is crazy by Detective Payne, sent here last Saturday at the instance of the governor of Virginia to put Rubin through an examination for the Commonwealth.

He made the statement Saturday to the effect that Rubin was not the man wanted for the crime and he held out even following all subsequent examinations. He is understood to base his opinion in the case on the fact that Rubin cannot relate all the physical faces in the case according to the evidence now in the hands of the Fairfax county authorities.

Although the District officials oppose the delivery of Rubin to the Virginia county until he has been tried in the District, the county authorities on the other hand are confident of having the extradition papers honored at once. In the event the papers are honored the prisoner will be taken to the scene of the crime.

ACT ON JURY'S REPORT

Findings of Grand Jury Referred to Committees—Lower Board Changes Location of Jitneys and Aldermen Lay Matter on Table—Other Matters Presented.

A copy of the findings of the grand jury which met recently in the corporation court was read at a meeting of common council last night, and President Burke took up each part of the report and referred it to the proper committees, for a report to council as follows:

Illicit traffic in liquor to police committee; restoring police force to full membership, police and finance committees; poor quality of gas, to light committee, removal of all screens from pool rooms, and gambling cases, to general laws and finance committee; using all prisoners in city jail for chain gang purposes, to street committee.

The street committee recommended that the jitney line operating between this city and Camp Humphreys be located in Friendship alley in the square bounded by King, Prince, Alfred and Patrick streets, and that passengers be taken on jitneys on Alfred street between King and Prince streets. Their recommendation was adopted by a vote of 13 to 2 Messrs. McCaffrey and Sullivan voting against changing the location.

The board of aldermen, however, laid the matter on the table and the jitneys for the present, at least, will continue to use the old location of Pitt street between King ad Prince streets.

This action was taken because objection was raised to the jitneys by residents of Pitt street between King and Prince streets.

The proposition created considerable debate.

Kenneth W. Ogden, chief of the fire department, called attention to the fact that the fire engine bells now at times are not rung during a fire owing to the shortage of policemen and he suggested in his communication that an automatic ringer be installed. This was referred to the joint committee on finance, police and general laws.

Chief Ogden also directed attention in another communication to the congested condition of King street between Washington and Columbus streets owing to the double track of the Washington-Virginia Railway at that point and of the danger when the fire apparatus is responding to an alarm of fire.

Council decided to request the railway company to discontinue using this switch and make transfers King and Columbus streets instead of at this switch. The railway company also will be asked to remove the switch. The railway company also switch. A committee composed of Councilmen Ruben and Lawler was appointed for the purpose of waiting on the officials of the railway company and having them attend to the matter at once.

George E. Warfield, who was recently elected a member of common council from the first ward, tendered his resignation and the election of his successor was deferred until the next meeting. In his letter he explained that his duties were such that he would be unable to give the required time to the position.

A committee composed of Mrs. M. W. O'Brien, Miss Mary Carlin and Mrs. John Leadbeater appeared before council and asked for an appropriation of $300 for the Alexandria Free Kindergarten. Councilman Lawler moved that the usual appropriation of $150 be granted and Councilman Ballenger offered a resolution authorizing the light committee to furnish two loads of coke a month for six months to the kindergarten in accordance with a request made by the committee of ladies. Councilman Ruben suggested increasing the appropriation to $300. Both matters were referred.

Resolutions authorizing the finance committee to borrow the sum of $75,000, of which amount $15,000 shall be placed to the credit of the gas fund, the remaining $60,000 to be credited to the general fund, was refered to the finance committee.

BULGARIANS ROUTED

British and French Attack Along Four-Mile Front Facing Around St. Quentin, Scoring Gains.

Paris, Sept. 25.—French cavalry has entered Prilep, the main base of the routed Bulgarian armies, the war office announces. The retreat of the Bulgarians continues, the statement says. The number of prisoners is steadily increasing. Immense stores of food, gasoline, and many automobiles and airplanes have been captured by the pursuing allies.

London, Sept. 25.—The French and British, attacking on a four-mile front facing St. Quentin yesterday morning, "made good progress," and took 800 prisoners, Field Marshal Haig announced last night. Fighting continues in and around Selency, which is only two miles northwest of St. Quentin. The British also improved their positions northeast of Epehy, west of Le Catelet.

London, Sept. 25.—The invasion of Bulgaria has begun. Word to this effect came from the Macedonian front late yesterday. Details as to the location of the allied right, which has carried the fighting into Bulgarian territory are still outstanding, but unofficial reports state that Strumnitza an important town east of the Vardar is the immediate objective of the allies.

Meanwhile two great Bulgarian armies, believed to comprise the bulk of King Ferdinand's fighting forces, are in imminent danger of being encircled and annihilated. With them the Eleventh German division, which had been sent to help them, is retreating.

The Serbians, who have captured 14,000 prisoners and 140 guns so far yesterday crossed the Vardar on a front of fifteen kilometers (more than nine miles). They have captured more than half of the Gradsko-Prilep road. The Bulgarians are retreating along the Koprulu-Istip road, which, however, is within the grasp of the Serbian cavalry.

STEAMER NEWPORT NEWS IS RAISED.

The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company's steamer Newport News, which was sunk at her dock on Labor Day morning as a result of the fire which swept the company's wharves in Washington has been raised and is now floating on her own bottom. The work was accomplished in record time by a New York company.

Examination discloses the fact that the vessel is not as badly damaged as was first supposed. During the week it is expected to tow her to either Newport News or Norfolk shipyards, where she will be dry docked and repaired. The boat will probably be again ready for service by the end of the present year.

OPPOSES HUN AGREEMENT

British Labor Firm for Rights of Belgium And of Alsace-Lorraine.

London, Sept. 25.—"It cannot be made too clear that British labor has long since placed Belgium outside the category of questions upon which there can be either negotiations or compromises, and regards the question of Alsace-Lorraine as essentially one of right and not of territorial readjustment," said Arthur Henderson, the British labor party leader, in an interview. His statement was called out by a quoted suggestion from Herr Ebert, the German Majority Socialist leader, that all labor and socialist interest ought to try to come to an understanding on a common peace program.

"This is exactly what we have been asking German Majority Socialists to do since February," added Mr. Henderson, "and we regret that so far we have not had from them the measure of assistance we were entitled to expect, while the existence of the infamous treaties of Brest-Litovsk and Bucharest have created new and almost insuperable obstacles to a peace of understanding on international principles."

RED CROSS NEEDS HOME WORKERS

Alexandria Chapter Asked to Aid in Reclamation Work for the Base Hospital, Camp Humphreys.

The latest branch of work which the Alexandria Red Cross has been asked to undertake is that of mending linen and hospital garments for the Base Hospital at Camp A. A. Humphreys. The commanding officer at the hospital recently sent a request to Potomac Division Headquarters of the American Red Cross for assistance in the reclamation of linen and garments, and it was at once suggested that Alexandria being the nearest chapter, undertake the work. This the local chapter has agreed to do, but in order to fulfil its promise many new workers must be enlisted in this work, which can be done at home so easily.

No doubt, many who read this are now are already working for the Red Cross. If you are not engaged in making surgical dressings, hospital garments or comforts of some discription or even if you are giving some time to the cause, determine now to help more. Mending is one branch of sewing in which everyone is more or less experienced. No special talent is required. The work can be done at home in odd moments.

A hamper containing one hundred freshly laundered articles is now on hand for Alexandrinas to mend.

If twenty women would mend five articles each the work would be quickly done, or better still fifty women mend two each. We must all do more work for our boys, and the Red Cross is the natural place for our activities. Every woman in Alexandria who has a brother, son, husband or some dear one in the service of our, country, should right now be in the service of the Red Cross. There is some work that everyone can do who will.

If you will knit, make surgical dressings, sew on bedside bags for hospitals, make comfort bags with housewives and button bags inside, mend sheets, bathrobes, sew labels in garments and knitted goods, do volunteer clerical work. Enlist with the Alexandria Red Cross. It needs you, and you need it.

Garments for mending may be secured Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings, between 10 and 1 at the central workrooms, corner of King and Pitt streets.

GERMAN MORALE LOSS

Boys, Fathers of Families and Cripples Drafted for Army. Disease and Famine Threaten Civilians.

William J. Butler in a dispatch from London published in the Washington Herald says:

London, Sept. 24.—Germany is weakening. Her army is dispirited. Famine and disease stalk through the land. Civilians are being steadily disillusioned as to the outcome of the great world conflict. A remarkable first hand picture of internal conditions in Germany is contained in more than two hundred letters taken from German prisoners recently by one of the French armies, which have just been made public here.

Nearly all these letters are dated prior to the first of the German reverses on the 15th of August. They cover a variety of topics, including civilian discontent, the heavy losses in man power of the Germans, economic conditions, scarcity of food and raiment, the morale of the troops, and other points of the deepest interest to the entente powers.

Taking into consideration the fact that most of these letters were written before the big French drive, they lend color to the belief that the entente has but to set an invading foot on German soil and the Boche will be ready for a Senator Lodge "dictated peace."

Again and again there are letters advising men in the field to be taken prisoners, and there are numerous references to the Spanish fever in Germany as being nothing more than "hunger fever."

On July 5 a color sergeant wrote: "The cursed French have already caused us heavy losses."

An Oesterweg woman, writing on June 23, explained how all the 18-year-old class have gone, and how on that day news had been posted in the

READY TO MEET TE...

Germany Would Welcome Peace ... in Principle, Upon President ...son's Fourteen Points.

Amsterdam, Sept. 25.—Chancellor von Hertling says he is ready for peace based, in principle, upon President Wilson's fourteen points.

This statement, according to advices received here today, was made in the chancellor's speech to the main committee of the Reichstag yesterday. The chancellor declared he had evinced such readiness in his speech of February 25, to which, however, he pointed out that Wilson has not replied.

Members of the main committee are reported to be dissatisfied with von Hertling's speech, considering it unequal to the gravity of the situation. Party leaders of the Reichstag were to meet this morning to decide their attitude toward von Hertling.

"In regard to President Wilson's fourteen points, my speech of February 25 showed that I agreed, in principle, with a peace on such a basis, but Wilson has not answered that speech," the chancellor said.

"We desire general disarmament and freedom of the seas. The foreign secretary will discuss the political situation, particularly the Austrian note."

Von Hertling said he would energetically support the Prussian franchise reform and, if it appears impossible to "attain the desired result by the usual parliamentary methods he will employ "other constitutional means."

Before the committee convened Socialist adopted a policy favoring the July peace resolution, restoration of Serbia and Montenegro, a public statement by the government regarding restoration of Belgium, cancellation of the Brest-Litovsk treaty, and if necessary, autonomous government for Alsace Lorraine. The Centerists voted to support von Hertling.

"As you are aware deep discontent has seized wide circles of the population, on account of the sufferings and deprivations the war has brought the chancellor said."

Rome, Sept. 25.—The Austrian peace note has been received at the Vatican it was officially announced today.

NEW EASTERN FRONT.

Armies in Balkans and Palestine May Force Separate Peace.

Washington, Sept. 25.—A new Eastern fright has been established with dire possibilities for the central powers. It is the ever-growing menace of allied armies in the Balkan theater and the tremendous menace that the British have brought about through the successful palestine operations.

Military observers here believe the next few days will see allied troops fighting on Bulgarian soil. In addition, they see the obliteration of Turkey as an enemy.

Now is the time, in the opinion of many persons in the Capital, for the United States to put the finishing touches to both Turkey and Bulgaria by declaring war against them, thus lending its moral support to the east to its allies in the East. At the State Department yesterday, however it was authoritatively stated that relations with Turkey and Bulgaria were unchanged.

Meantime, reports show, the allies are sweeping everything before them in both theaters of the Eastern war. An official Serbian communique said the Serb army was continuing to traverse the Vardar, and were again in contact with the enemy. So complete has been the rout of the Bulgarians that at times it has taken fast traveling on the part of the allied forces to keep up with them.

Official dispatches also reveal that the capture of Prilep, the Bulgarian stronghold, is only a matter of time.

Official dispatches from France say the successes gained by the allied armies in Macedonia are assuming the character of a great victory.

Aside from the military features of the day, though, there remains the first belief—advanced many times in Washington—that Bulgaria, ever at odds with Turkey, would be only too glad to enter into arrangements for a separate peace.

As for Turkey, the British have completely demonstrated their ability to pacify her, military men say. The two operations, though, they point out, should be considered jointly.

WARNING TO JUNK DEALERS

The Police Court was in session an hour and a half this morning investigating charges which had been brought against three junk dealers of this city. It was alleged that they had in their possession articles belonging to railroad companies. The charge against the first dealer arraigned was not sustained and he was diamissed, but two others were convicted of receiving certain articles belonging to railroad companies, one having had a brass journal in his possession belonging to the Southern Railway Company. The minimum fine under the state law was imposed plus ten dollars for failing to report purchases to the police as required. The case against another dealer was continued.

The property had been found by attorneys of the property protection division of the law of the United States Railroad administration.

During the progress of the cases it was shown that under the provisions of the law of the United States a fine of ten thousand dollars can be imposed and the guilty parties sent to the penitentiary for five years also.

The government is at present operating railroads, and thefts from the same can be disposed of in the United States District Court.

The Police Justice gave notice that in future parties against whom clear cases can be proven of purchasing, receiving or having in their possession articles belonging to railroad companies will be turned over to the federal authorities.

A considerable amount of railroad property is stolen and disposed of annually, and government agents are at present busy in making investigations. Government detectives are also active in the work.

"THE SIEGE OF ACRE."

The words in the headline refer to Bonaparte's futile attempt to capture Acre, in the northern section of Palestine during his crusade in the east. The Corsican was filled with dreams of Oriental conquest when he reached this place, but Acre having been furnished with supplies by sea and the defense being in charge of an English strategist, Napoleon was forced to leave. He later in life said his failure at Acre changed the course of the world's history.

The British in their steam-roller progress in Palestine have taken Acre. Over a century ago they showed how they could defend it, and this week their ability to subdue it.

Dispatches tell us Jewish troops are taking an active part in forcing the Turks from the land of their fathers.

Prominent Englishmen said two score years ago that Palestine would be the scene of world conflicts in days that were to come. Their forecasts were smiled at, but we are living in a day when the Holy Land is the scene of carnage.

As was recently stated, Jerusalem, the City of the Great King, and Nazareth in which the Saviour of Mankind passed his boyhood days, are in the hands of the allies. Damascus, which existed in the days of Abraham, and into which Saul of Tarsus was led by the hand centuries later will soon be wrested from the Turks.

One of the morning papers contained a map of the seat of war in Palestine. It is an interesting study, as places so familiar to Bible students are again, after the lapse of hundreds of years, thrown upon the screen.

All the members of the Board of Aldermen were present last night. The board concurred in the action of the Common Council on all papers sent in save one which provides for removing the jitney stand from King and Pitt streets to Friendship alley on Alfred street.

church of the 192d Regiment dead.

A letter from an infantry reserve regiment on July 27, states:

"There are more than 8,000 men here, but only those of over 45 or fathers of more than six children. Those under 42 have had to go west, but we don't know where."

A letter from Lenterode states: "All males born in 1901 must now enroll."

A convalescent soldier wrote:

"It is very doubtful whether I shall still be here when you come on leave, for all the time men are being sent off. Even the company of convalescents has had to supply 100 men because the other companies could not supply any reinforcements."

A woman in Berlin on June 13 stated: "They are now calling up boys of 17. They were in tears as they left here. What will happen when they reach the front."

A letter from a divisional depot read: "Yesterday the 1900 class had to leave. Even cripples are taken."

A number of letters speak of widespread death and sickness through the German empire, due to the Spanish fever, or "famine typus," they term it. A woman at Dannstatt informs her sons:

"In the factories everyone is ill, and many of the schools are shut. Spanish influenza is raging throughout the poorer population. Do you know what it really is? It is famine. In order that no one should realize that it is due to famine they call it Spanish influenza."

From Munich there is a letter dated July 16, which says, in speaking of so many deaths due to the disease:

"All the dead can no longer be buried in the East Cemetery. There alone there were on Sunday twenty-five burials. What will the winter be like? The future is very dark."

Your Winter's Coal Supply

On account of rulings of the U. S. Fuel Administration, it seems doubtful if Virginia will receive sufficient anthracite coal to supply the demands. If present rulings are maintained, this shortage will be very great in Alexandria and we earnestly advise our customers to put in a reasonable amount of bituminous coal as a safeguard against a coal shortage next winter.

We are now securing some very fine bituminous coal which we believe will work in all characters of coal burners but the Ratrobe stoves.

Story of brave Belgian Countess who has a mind of her own.

Want to know how a Belgian treats a Hun? See Marguerite Clark's newest Paramount Picture.

Marguerite Clark plays the part of a Belgian Princess who is approached by a Hun with an offer of marriage.

That's where the fire-works start!

The fire-works end when she marries a good, old-fashioned citizen of these United States—the kind of a fellow you'd want her to marry.

By the way, she gets introduced to him by a bolt of lightning.

All right, don't believe it if you don't want to! Seeing's believing though! Come and see for yourself!.

VIRGINIA NEWS

The public schools and places of amusement in Fredericksburg have been closed for the remainder of the week on account of the prevalence of Spanish influenza.

The celebrated trial of John Seligeo, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Annie Mitchell, in Carroll county about 22 years ago, came to an end at Hillsville last week. The verdict returned by the jury was that the prisoner was John Seligeo, but not the one wanted for the murder of Mrs. Mitchell. According to evidence there are two John Seligeos, alike in appearance, and they are Hungarians. In 1896, John Seligeo murdered the widowed mother of his wife by beating her to death with a club near the family home.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly . . . Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then . . . it would last . . . two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three . . . I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children . . . Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years.

Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.
